More than just a farmer's market, this event draws local artisans, shop owners, and community service organizations. Come to the market and visit with friends, catch up with community news and locate volunteer opportunities, all while being entertained by local musicians!

We're pulling out all the stops to make sure Indiana's newest City celebrates the 4th of July in style!

Westfield Rocks the 4th will take place at Asa Bales Park and Westfield High School parking lots. Bands from across the region will compete for a $2500 grand prize in a Battle of the Bands contest, followed by a performance from Indiana's very own

Dr. Duke Tomatoe and the Power Trio!

We'll start the morning with "Bike It," a bicycle ride to benefit prostate cancer. A Headliners Car Show will complement the festival, featuring cars and motorcycles from across central Indiana. If that weren't enough, local Westfield restaurants will be serving great summer food, vendors will be selling their goods in the marketplace, and kids will have scheduled activities throughout the day, along with a play area complete with bounce houses, a dunk tank and plenty of games!

We'll end the day the old fashioned way ... with a fabulous Independence Day fireworks display. Come out and help us start a new July 4th tradition for our City!

The third annual Numa Arts and Cultural Event will showcase the finest work of painters, potters, dancers and musicians, plus upscale refreshment, a community cook-off and family fun from noon to 10pm, Saturday, September 18 at Penn and Union Streets.

This year's entertainment includes Gene Deer's blues, Brian Paulson's jazz, Ryan Anderson's drum circle, Dances of Universal Peace accompanied by Branches Breath, and headlining reggae act, The Ark Band!

The Grand Junction Derby—Westfield's wacky answer to the Indy 500—takes place this year on Sunday, August 8 at 3pm on the newly improved South Union Street! Gravity-powered, homemade derby cars compete in bracketed heats until winners are declared. Fast is good, but outrageous is better!

Racers win prizes for fastest, slowest, best use of imagination, ugliest ... you get the picture! Kids are invited to race their tricycles and Big Wheels for free.
